“ Carol -
OMG I just was made aware of your homegoing yesterday (05/09/24) by a mutual friend of ours. My heart is heavy because we lost contact with each other right after COVID began. I remember the last conversation I had was with your wonder husband, calling him to tell him I was outside and had stopped by to check on you both. He stated that you were out taking care of some business with the car. Oh!! When I was told yesterday my head filled up with wonder memories of our trip to Chicago in July 2018; the long heartfelt conversations on the phone; your concerns of my life challenges personally and professionally at SEPTA (I have since retired after 33 years!); your invitations to your church services and swimming club on hot Philly days!! I regret now not reaching out only I was waiting to hear from you. We both love our day trips and to travel so I will continue that activity in your honor. I pray that you husband is doing well and I know he is in God's grace and missing you badly! In addition, the Queen that I knew you to be I know you are resting in HIS POWER AND MERCY!! You were working on being like a second mom to me. I met you several years after my beloved mother went home in 2012 so if you run into a sharp dressing lady like yourself and her name happens to be Rosalie, it my mom!! Happy Heavenly Mother's Day.
Lov ya and miss you for life.
