“ It took a while for me to share a memory. I have lots of pleasant and fun memories of my friend Louis, a.k.a. Cowboy. I remember all the dance spots we hung at, all his favorites drinks, his Curve cologne, and just his pleasant personality. Recently, I was having car issues and needed stickers, he told me where to go. I knew his heart and I knew that it was good and pure. I could still hear his voice saying, “my bad”, “I’m sorry”, “hey girlie”. I was so happy for him when he showed me pictures of his new house. He only talked about it for years. We were good friends and I will truly miss him. He was a good guy. My condolences again to his family.

“ Louis Aka Cowboy was my Big Bro/Old Head... I remember leaving my Mother's house one night in my way to the 33. He drove up next to me and said get in... Not only did he take me home but also to dinner and drinks. We had a ball.... My GQ Brother. Rest well my friend until we meet again. Love you...
